The Mock Marriage.

The trials of the parties concerned in the mock marriage, of which we made mention last week, were commenced on Tuesday and strung out for several days. Williams, the man who performed the ceremony, was held over in $500 to the Circuit Court. Morgan, the groom, was not satisfied with Judge Thomson and Squire McDonald as a court and swore them off. Squires W. S. Clark and Judge R. E. Gaffes, were summoned and after hearing the case, also held him over in $1,000. Morgan Lane and John Beeler, the parties who helped on the fun, were tried before Judge Thomson and Squire McDonald and discharged.

Nannie Phillips, the girl who was made the dupe of these men, testified that she knew all the time the marriage was a sham affair, but nevertheless lived with Morgan as his wife until he was arrested, which was an entirely different story from the one she told when Morgan was first arrested.

We are informed that this is not the first time that Morgan has played the same game. It is said that several years ago he induced a young girl residing in Shelby county to elope with him to Lexington, where a mock marriage ceremony was said by his brother, and after living with the girl two or three weeks, deserted her. He has a wife living in Louisville, whom he leaves to make a livelihood for herself and several children, and goes back to live with her whenever it suits his convenience.

Great injustice was done Mr. Pickens Tremere in connecting his name with this affair, as he only wrote a statement on a scrap of paper to the effect that the parties were entitled to be married according to the laws of Kentucky, without signing any name to it, in order to get rid of the men, who were all drunk. He knew nothing of them and had never seen some of them before.

In a county where criminal prosecutions are but mere forms and bought juries common talk, it is not to be wondered at that such hand-bills as the following make their appearance:

TO THE CITIZENS OF FRANKFORT.
A casual meeting of some of the best citizens of the city, who are deeply interested in its welfare, and have the protection of life and property, and especially the virtue of defenseless women, at heart, has led to a proposition to organize at once a Vigilance Committee.

Murders, rapes, seductions, and mock marriages have become the order of the day. The city is overrun with ex-convicts and desperadoes, escaped criminals and vagrants. The police and the courts are powerless to remedy these evils.

How long this state of affairs shall continue may depend upon the will of a few good men. Let the hands of our officers be strengthened and had men invited to take a walk. Let the lives of our men and the virtue of our women be protected.

The undersigned have secured the consent of a brave, bold, and prudent man to organize and lead you. We will wait upon you with invitations to become members, which should be esteemed a high compliment, as a list of only good and true men has been carefully prepared to choose from.

If you can't become a member of the Committee give it your moral support. No violation of the law (except in extreme cases) is contemplated, but it is to vindicate and uphold the law, religion, and good morals that this committee is proposed. Let its members feel that this task has been committed to it by you, and that you will stand by them until they abuse the trust. Remember that "the price of liberty is eternal vigilance," and organize promptly. In the meantime ex-convicts and unlicensed ministers had better get out of the way of the procession. Respectfully,
SUB-COMMITTEE.

Mr. Walter C. Bailey died at the residence of his son-in-law, Col. Ike Wingate, at Woodlake, in this county, Thursday night. The funeral took place at Col. Wingate's residence yesterday afternoon and the remains will be taken to the old home of the deceased at Lancaster this morning, for interment.

The commencement exercises at the K. M. I. took place Thursday and were largely attended by ladies and gentlemen from this city and county, as well as neighboring cities. A number of former graduates of the school were among the number. There were eight or ten graduates.

We will say for the benefit of those who send us lengthy obituary notices of their departed friends that our space will not admit of their publication, where they exceed one inch in length, unless they are paid for. We cannot undertake to re-write and get them in shape for publication, which is necessary in nine cases out of ten, as it requires too much time.

BASE BALL.

The Frankfort Club returned from their trip North Sunday afternoon, bringing with them McLaughlin, a first-class pitcher, who was signed at Erie, Pennsylvania, by Manager Franklin.

On Monday afternoon they met the Springfield nine for the first time on the home grounds, when the game resulted as follows, McLaughlin pitching for the home team:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—T.
Springfield.....1 1 1 0 5 0 2 0—10
Frankfort.....0 0 0 1 1 0 2 1 0—5

Tuesday afternoon Wells pitched and the score was as follows:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—T.
Springfield.....0 4 2 0 0 1 3 1—14
Frankfort.....0 1 0 1 1 1 1 2—8

Tuesday night Manager Franklin went to Lexington, signed Reader, Connelly, Flynn and Crogan, of the disbanded Lexington Club, and brought them home with him next morning. By the addition of these new men the club was greatly strengthened, and Wednesday's game was much more interesting. The ladies were admitted free and a much larger crowd was in attendance. McLaughlin was again put in to pitch, with Schicknecht to catch him, and the score was as follows:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—T.
Springfield.....0 0 2 1 5 0 1 8—25
Frankfort.....1 0 8 1 0 0 2 0—12

As the Frankfort Club was run at a loss to the management it was thought best to disband after the close of the game which was accordingly done.

Pure Blood and Strong Nerves.

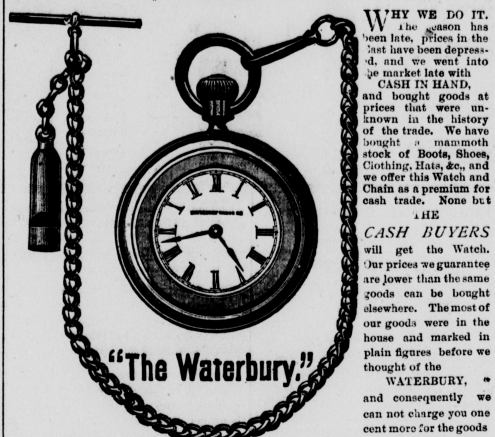

At 19 years of age I was afflicted with fearful pains in my head, eyes, shoulders and right side, and began to spit blood. I tried quite a number of physicians, whose medicines only brought temporary relief. They called it cold, and after exhausting their treatment, said I was sure to die. Being an orphan, and in poor health all my life, I thought death would be a relief. Thus, for twelve years, I suffered. My only solace was in morphine. For two years I never slept day a night without morphine, so intense was my suffering. During the spring of 1881 I was induced to try Swift's Specific. It acted like a charm. It was a God-send to me. After using it that season, I was completely restored. It gave me pure blood, strong nerves, sound mind and good health. I am now thirty-five years of age and am in perfect health as any lady in Atlanta. Ten thousand tongues could not express my gratitude for finding this wonderful medicine. I commend it to suffering humanity.

Dry Tetter Cured.

I have been afflicted with a disease termed Dry Tetter, and have applied various remedies, but to no permanent good. I saw an advertisement announcing that Swift's Specific had cured Mr. James Dunning, of Louisville, Ky., of this terrible disease. I procured thirteen bottles at once and began its use. At the end of seven months there was not the least sign of tetter on my person, nor has there been a symptom of its return up to date. Therefore I cheerfully recommend Swift's Specific to all who are afflicted with this painful disease. I am very thankful that I ever heard of Swift's Specific. It has brought health and happiness to my home.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Purrington.

Miss Susie Baker, Shelby county, is the guest of her brother, Wm. Baker, near the K. M. I.

The death of Hugh Rodgers was very much regretted by all citizens throughout this community.

Miss Emma Halmhuber was the guest of Miss Annie Flynn last Sunday evening and the visit will be returned by Miss Annie the Sunday following.

Wistar McAndrew, late of Benson, who has been visiting his cousins, Melvin and Mary Johnson, started overland for home Saturday at 8 o'clock p. m.

We are having a grand Sabbath school at the chapel this time; superintendent, B. S. Hughes, secretary, E. Jones, and we wish them great success in the future.

Miss Mary Walby, of Lexington, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hawkins. Miss Walby has numerous friends in this neighborhood and they are all delighted with her visit.

At Old South Benson we also have another grand Sabbath school, William Parrent, superintendent. There will be preaching the second Sunday in June by Rev. Bro. Stephenson, pastor.

Prospects are fine for corn crops in this section at present and also fine prospects for oats, but wheat is in a dreadful condition. Times are very hard. Business is going on here, especially with farmers and country.

Purrington school adjourned for this session on May 20th. The teachers, Mrs. Jones, gave a very nice lunch to her pupils and they enjoyed it immensely. Mrs. Jones was very much liked by all of her pupils and tender will be glad to have her for teacher again soon.

Cedar Run.

Born.—To the wife of James Morris, on the 24th inst., a son, Stephen.

Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. Glatton and daughter, Miss Katie, visited the Misses Thomason last Tuesday.

Gen. Scott Brown's card, announcing his determination not to become a candidate for Senator, will be read regretfully by a host of friends throughout the district.

That lovely bouquet which was thrown to us on our return from Frankfort last Monday, was highly appreciated on account of the beautiful flower, the roses. We are powerless to resist their charms.

The remains of Hugh Rodgers, who lost his life by a train running over him, were buried at the home of his father, Mr. Hardin Rodgers, last Thursday, the 20th inst. in this sad affliction and their own heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents.

We don't blame the young man if she is half as handsome as the one that gave us that bouquet the other day. We would call it going tanning or anything else just so we could be close to her. Go again, Jimmie, and may be you will have better luck.

Capt. Campbell Steele, in announcing himself a candidate for County Clerk, in the last election, and immediately to the home of his need not expect money or whisky from him. Now let his competitors follow suit. Then, and not till then, will honesty and competency prevail.

George Green, than whom no better man lives, will make a vigorous canvass for the Democratic nomination for County Clerk. If George was as well known throughout the county as he is in his own district, he would have a walk over. While there are other good men that are candidates, we can assure the people they will make no mistake by voting for him.

Miss Stinette, Miss Eppola and Miss Enlow have been visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood. We will forfeit our reputation as a prophetic people on the proposition, that at no distant day one of the above young ladies will be sharing the joys and sorrows of one of our citizens. We know when a fellow means business.

A certain young gent hereabouts, in order to deceive or mislead some inquisitive members of the family, reported that he was going fishing, when in fact he went in an opposite direction, and immediately to the home of his girl in Shelby county. Upon his return a day or so afterward, was accosted by afore-said inquisitive persons to know what luck in fishing. His reply was: Not a bite; hate not good. How wicked these dear ones are sometimes.

STONEY CREEK.

Some of our citizens have set out some tobacco.

W. R. F. Branner bought a colt from Mat. Davall last Monday.

Our farmers complain of their corn not coming up good this spring.

Napoleon B. Smith, candidate for county clerk, was out last Sunday. He will sweep everything clear as he goes.

Mrs. M. B. Steger and sister, Miss Alice Branner, visited Mrs. John Smith, the mother of Hon. J. J. Smith, last Tuesday.

Miss Della Branner, Robert Smith, Mrs. M. B. and Curtis Steger, visited Mrs. Cordia Rodgers, on Lebanon Ridge, last Sunday.

J. W. Steger and J. J. Smith, who have had their picture gallery located at Bailey's Mill for the past two weeks, have removed to Aiton, Anderson county, where they will remain only a short while.

We understand that Rusticus has converted his bone mill into a grist mill and is doing a large business. In addition to this mill he has added a first class photograph and retouching gallery and has employed Mr. Butler, the finest artist in the United States, at a salary of $500 a month, to help him run his mill and gallery.

Antioch.

We have had fine rains and our farmers are happy.

Born.—May 30th, to Joe Bryant and wife, a daughter, Bessie Snellon.

Tom Hales tried his luck at fishing and caught one that weighed 30 lbs.

Preaching at Antioch and Pleasant Ridge to-morrow week at 11 o'clock a. m.

Mr. William Dean caught two cat fish last week, one weighing 100 lbs., the other 51 lbs., besides others of less weight.

James Glore and wife, L. Hunter dined at Henry Spalding's last Saturday. Henry had about 10 pounds of fish the occasion.

Let the teachers of Franklin county remember that the Teachers' Association will meet on the third Saturday in June and we expect a full attendance if all come that have promised.

We hope to have Col. B. D. Allen, Pres't, and R. T. Hutchison, Vice Pres't of the S. T. A., with us on that day. Meeting to be held in the City School building at 10 a. m.

The following is the programme of the Franklin County Teachers' Association on Saturday, June 20th, 1885:

Bozema.

Bozema is one of the ugliest and most troublesome of all blood diseases. It proceeds from humors in the blood which are sometimes very difficult to eradicate. For five weary years Mr. J. D. Rodefer, of Greendale, Va., suffered terribly from this disease. He writes: "Finding no relief from the many medicines I tried I used Brown's Iron Bitters. I purchased three bottles; from the use of which I obtained almost entire relief. I recommenced it to every one in my neighborhood for any disorder of the blood and as a general tonic."

Mr. Thos. Hunter, a common school teacher of fifteen years experience, is announced in this issue as a candidate for County Superintendent of Common Schools. Knowing as well as a man can the needs of the schools and school teachers, he certainly will make a good officer.

There are now but three Storekeepers and three Gaugers in this county in the Government service, and there are over a hundred applications for the position of Storekeeper and one or two for Gauger, from this county, under the new Collector, who goes into office on Monday.

Judge L. W. McKee, of Anderson, was endorsed by the Democracy of this county on Monday as their candidate for Senator from this district. The Judge is a clever gentleman and certainly cannot make a poorer out of representing us in the Senate than the last gentleman who drew the per diem and mileage for performing that service.

Tuesday afternoon the foundation of the large hog tank at the Spring Hill Distillery gave way, when the tank fell and rolled into the river, carrying everything before it. The pumps were so badly damaged that a stoppage of the distillery was necessary until midnight, when the damage was repaired sufficiently to start up again and finish the day's run.

We were in error last week, in our notice of the death of young Hugh Rodgers, of this county, in saying that his family did not know where he was. Our information was obtained from a neighbor of the family and we supposed it was correct. It seems that the young man had been employed as a section hand on the railroad, under his brother, had been at home a few days before, and left with the intention of going to work on the Short-Line Road. It is supposed that he had fainted and fallen on the track at the time he was run over.
